Conflict Resolution Quarterly

Spring 2018
Volume 35, Issue 3

The newest edition, Spring 2018, is Available NOW!
Please check it out!

Research Articles

Collective memory of conflict is not all about politics—
The Israeli case: Empirical, theoretical, and practical aspects (pages 275–294)
Rafi Nets-Zehngut

Mini-Colloquy: How Our Work Changes Us

How our work changes us: Reflecting on a career as a defense victims outreach specialist and the application of restorative justice (pages 295–300)
Adriana Helenek and Jonathan Taylor Downs

Hidden in plain view: The impact of mediation on the mediator and implications for conflict resolution education (pages 301–318)
Deborah A. Malizia and Jessica Katz Jameson

Becoming the change we wish to see:
The unexpected benefits of conflict resolution work (pages 319–327)
Susan S. Raines